Thank you

We, the United Methodist Men, are pleased with the fish fry. From all comments I have heard people enjoyed the fish (pepper and all)! This is another opportunity to thank everyone again for their help. I can't begin to thank individuals because there were too many. There are two special groups that deserve a special thanks so, Methodist youth and ladies of the church, thanks again for a job well done. Without your help we could not have served about 1,300 people. One of the best things to come from the fish fry was to work with so many people all day and never see anyone who seemed to be unhappy. I didn't see a frown all day. The fellowship and friendship that seemed to exist among everyone was just great to see and participate in. Thanks again, everyone!! Yes, Tim, again there might have been too much pepper but I won't tell your doctor that you ate some! - Thanks again, everyone!!! Herb Dowless

If you have a Prayer Request, please call Jane West at 739-9324.

Missions

Have you been reading Treasures of the Transformed Life and found yourself really thirsty? Have you asked yourself the question in Sunday's sermon, "How committed am I to God's church?" Below are several opportunities for you to find a niche by helping in missions.

Jackets and Coats Needed

If you have extra coats or jackets that you do not need, please bring them to the church and hang them in the hall closet by the entrance doors to Asbury Hall. We ask that they be clean and not torn or faded. We need jackets for all ages but have a particular need for men's jackets. These will be given out at the November Community Fellowship Meal. Hats, scarves or gloves and socks may also be donated. Thank you for helping keep someone warm this winter.

Community Fellowship Meal

The October Community Fellowship Meal will be sponsored by the 3M Sunday school class. The meal will be served on Saturday, October 24 at 10:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. in Asbury Hall. If you would like to be a table host or hostess, please come and help.

Meal for Missions

On November 1st after the Sunday morning worship service the Missions Committee is sponsoring a meal to raise money for future mission work teams. Please join us for a good meal and great fellowship after church. Anyone who feels a call to be part of a missions work team is welcome to help with the meal prep and cleanup.

Are you looking for a way to serve your Lord and your church that's not center stage?

Are you willing

...to serve behind the scene?

...to do this job without public recognition? Ever?

...to invest about an hour a week walking with someone with a heavy heart?

...to keep your efforts for this person confidential?

...to spend 50 hours in training for this job?

If you've answered yes to the above questions, then Stephen Ministry has classes for you beginning on October 19 at 6:30 in the library. The most convenient day and time for the remainder of the 15 weeks of class will be selected then. We've shortened 30-minute breaks, so class time will be less than 15 hours.

Contact Frances or Bob Scott for more information or to sign up at 739-5145.

We will also be glad to have you just show up for class. You will be glad you did!!
